

DeepSeek User Agreement

Dear user,

Welcome to use the DeepSeek product and services!

Before using this Service, please make sure to read and understand this "DeepSeek User Agreement" (hereinafter referred to as "this Agreement").

Please be aware that when you confirm your acceptance to this Agreement through clicking the network page or actually use the DeepSeek large model (hereinafter referred to as "this Service"), it means that you and Beijing DeepSeek Artificial Intelligence Fundamental Technology Research Co., Ltd., Hangzhou DeepSeek Artificial Intelligence Fundamental Technology Research Co., Ltd., and its affiliates (hereinafter referred to as "we" or "DeepSeek") have reached a consensus on this Agreement, and this Agreement has contractual effect.

We specially remind you to read carefully (minors under 18 years old shall read it with the accompaniment of a legal guardian), and fully understand all terms of this Agreement, especially the disclaimer, applicable law, and jurisdiction, and other terms displayed in bold. If you disagree with any content of this Agreement or cannot accurately understand our interpretation of the terms of this Agreement, please click disagree or stop using this Service. Otherwise, it indicates that you have accepted all terms described in this Agreement and its applicable conditions and agree to be bound by this Agreement.

NOTE: This product is still in the alpha test, you can use the Service after you apply for the alpha test and get our permission. All content provided by this Service is answered by an AI model, errors or omissions may occur. This Service does not guarantee the accuracy, completeness, and functionality of its reply content, and the output content does not represent the attitude or opinion of the service provider. Especially when you use this Service to consult on medical, legal, and other related professional issues, please note that this Service only provides suggestions and does not represent professional opinions such as medical diagnoses or legal services. If you need professional opinions such as medical diagnoses and legal services, you must consult doctors and relevant legal professionals and make decisions under the guidance of professionals. In summary, the content provided by this Service shall be for reference only, and does not constitute any advice or commitment. We do not bear any damage or liability caused to you or any third party by using this Service.

Article 1 Our Services

1.1 The architecture of the DeepSeek model is Transformer, and the training framework is PyTorch. DeepSeek provides AI question-answering services. Users need to input text information in the dialogue box, and DeepSeek will output corresponding content as a response based on user input, including text, tables, and code. DeepSeek will collect and analyze user input and output information to improve recognition and response capabilities, and improve the intelligence and content quality of this Service. Users can evaluate the output, including likes, dislikes, and other operations, to feedback the user's opinions on the output information of DeepSeek.

1.2 The specific functions of this Service will continue to be iteratively updated with user feedback, technical upgrades, or changes in relevant regulatory policies.

1.3 When you use a specific function of this Service, there may be separate agreements and relevant business rules for that specific function ("specific agreements"). Please read and agree to the relevant specific agreements before using this specific function. If there is a conflict between the content of this Agreement and the specific agreements, the provisions of the specific agreements shall prevail.

1.4 When you use products or services provided by third parties in this Service (such as through plugins, links, etc.), please comply with the user agreements, usage rules, privacy policies, and other legal documents published by the third parties. Within the scope permitted by laws and regulations, we are not responsible for third-party products and any content.

Article 2 Account Management

2.1 This Service is mainly for adults. If you are under 18 years old, please read this Agreement with the accompaniment of a legal guardian, and use this Service with the consent of a legal guardian. DeepSeek fully understands the importance of protecting minors and will take corresponding protective measures according to legal requirements and mainstream industry practices. At the same time, the guardian shall reasonably guide and restrain minor users from using this Service, create a good network environment together, help minors develop good internet habits, and avoid over-dependence or indulgence in this Service.

2.2 Before using this Service, you shall register an account in real name according to the page prompt, fill in the relevant information truthfully, accurately, legally, and effectively as required, and confirm and agree to this Agreement, DeepSeek Privacy Policy, and other relevant rules and policies. If the materials you submit or the information you provide is inaccurate, untrue, irregular, or we have reason to suspect that it is erroneous, untrue, or illegal materials, we have the right to refuse to provide you with relevant functions. You may not be able to use this software and related services, or some functions may be restricted during use. Your account is your credential for logging in and using this Service, and the account is non-transferable, non-givable, and non-inheritable.

2.3 You understand and promise that the account you set up shall not violate relevant national laws and regulations. Your account name, avatar, and profile and other registration information and other account information shall not contain illegal and inappropriate information. Without the permission of others, you shall not open an account in the name of others (including but not limited to fraudulent use of another person's name, designation, title, avatar, etc. in a manner sufficient to cause confusion), and you shall not maliciously register accounts (including but not limited to frequent registration, batch registration of accounts, etc.). During the account registration and use process, you shall comply with relevant laws and regulations and shall not carry out any behavior that infringes the national interest, damages the legal rights and interests of other citizens, or is harmful to social morals. We have the right to review the information you submitted.

2.4 When you register and use an account, you shall promise and guarantee:

- (1) Take full responsibility for the truthfulness, legality, and validity of registration information, update the registration information in time, and shall not register an account or use this Service in the name of someone else without permission;
- (2) Properly keep the account and password, and bear legal responsibility for all behaviors under the account;
- (3) Shall not maliciously register accounts, including but not limited to frequent registration, batch registration, etc.;
- (4) You shall not transfer, lend, rent, or provide the account to others in any form.

2.5 If we find that you have illegal and irregular behaviors such as obtaining account registration with false information and violating the agreement, we have the right to take measures such as rectification within a time limit, suspension of use without notification or cancellation of your account.

2.6 Users find any illegal use of user accounts shall notify us immediately, and we will give the maximum cooperation to deal with it. However, we do not bear any responsibility for various losses caused by the disclosure of the account or password.

2.7 If a user requests us to cancel his/her account, and upon our review and approval, we will cancel the registered account of the user, thus terminating the contractual relationship with us. However, after the user cancels the account, we still have the right to:

- (1) retain the user's registration data and previous behavior records, except for those belonging to personal information;
- (2) exercise the rights stipulated in this agreement against the user for any illegal activities or violations of this agreement that occurred before the cancellation during the use of our services.
